Rockville MD- September 28, 2011

The Insurance Exchange announces qualifying for the 3rd year in the 2011 Business Insurance “Best Places to Work in Insurance” Survey.

All insurance agencies and brokers with 25 employees or more were given a chance to participate in the survey. The survey rated employee satisfaction in the workplace environment and company practices. The employers and employees were given a questionnaire to fill out about the policies, procedures, and benefits offered through their companies.

Founded in 1967, The Insurance Exchange remains a privately owned Independent Insurance Agency providing business insurance, employee benefits, financial services, and personal insurance to companies and individuals.

Employees at The Insurance Exchange are “key” to the success of the agency. These employees are talented, and dedicated individuals.

The Insurance Exchange will continue to provide the premier client experience through professionalism, integrity, and innovation.

The alphabetical list of the 50 Best Places to Work in Insurance has been released in the September 12th issue of Business Insurance and the final profiles and rankings will be unveiled and published in the November 7th issue of Business Insurance.

Published weekly by Crain Communications Inc., Business Insurance reports on issues related to risk management, employee benefits and commercial insurance with a circulation of more than 45,000 in the U.S.
